Over the years, many have become attracted by the “revolution in seeing” that has become Impressionism. Work with Tom Bluemlein, a true impressionist, and play with the notion of painting what you see. Tom will turn the routine upside down as he presents techniques and ideas that will start and restart the wonder of your artistic expressions. Tom will take you through a painting by hook or crook with humor. Simple techniques and expert instruction combined to show you how to take an image, grid it and turn it into a painting that has energy and movement. A great way to shake up your painting!

Tom celebrates nature, capturing not only the beauty of the landscape but also the life force of creation. He captures the spirit of the locale, not just the natural elements on view within the canvas. His paintings reach out to invite the viewer—a silent partner in all Bluemlein’s creative effort—to linger and come to the scene and even get lost in it. A native Kentuckian, Tom has studied with several masters and his art career spans three decades. Tom enjoys mentoring other artists, especially through his workshops and demonstrations. He is a member of the Cincinnati Art Club, Oil Painters of America, Indiana Plein Air Painters, and past President of the American Impressionist Society.
